THE DULCIMER CLASS

Join instructor Mike Anderson for an extended weekend class. Check in Friday, February 26, at 6:30 p.m. in the Three Sisters Park pavilion. Class begins at 7:00-9:00 p.m. Friday evening, and continues Saturday, February 27, from 9:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. Class finishes Sunday, February 28, from 10:00 a.m. to noon with an open stage performance. Mike Anderson, instructor

Discover how to play melodies high and low on the fingerboard, and how to simplify or complicate any melody in this weekend workshop. Time will be spent on strumming, flat picking, fingerpicking, fingerings and chords. This class is intended for students who already have some experience and can tune and strum a mountain dulcimer. Students are required to bring their own instruments. Registered students receive one free admission to the Saturday night concert, plus continental breakfast and lunch on both Saturday and Sunday.

THE SATURDAY NIGHT CONCERT

Mike Anderson and his friends will present an evening of old-time musical tradition featuring the mountain dulcimer on February 27, 2010. The concert begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel at Three Sisters Park in Chillicothe, IL. Sit back and enjoy a fine blend of favorite folk music, storytelling, and a unique brand of humor that has made Mike Anderson one of the most sought-after folk artists in the nation today.

Reserve your ticket today!

Tickets are $10.00 each, or two for $15.00. Registered students receive one free admission to the concert.
